

BLUEPRINT

ARCHITECT/COASTAL

EDITORS' CHOICE

OLSON LEWIS + Architects, Manchester-by-the-Sea

With its focus on creating spaces to connect people and their environments, the team at OLSON LEWIS is a natural at designing spaces that use materials and forms that reflect the natural beauty of the coast. Furthermore, as climate change increases the chance of storm damage near the water, the firm has developed a solid expertise in designing for resilience and adaptability. 17 Elm St., Manchester-by-the-Sea, 978-526-4386, olsonlewis.com

READERS' CHOICE

SV Design, Beverly

126 Dodge St., Beverly, 978-927-3745, svdesign.com

ARCHITECT/CONTEMPORARY

EDITORS' CHOICE

SV Design, Beverly

SV Design promises—and delivers—transformative design achieved through deep collaboration with clients and seamless communication across internal teams. The result is homes with clear contemporary styling that fit comfortably in traditional New England surroundings. Clients can also rest assured they're working with a firm with heart: SV Design works regularly on affordable housing projects in the region. 126 Dodge St., Beverly, 978-927-3745, svdesign.com

READERS' CHOICE

SV Design, Beverly

ARCHITECT/RENOVATION & RESTORATION

EDITORS' CHOICE

Cummings Architects, Ipswich

Founder Mat Cummings has a deep passion for architecture that shows in his hands-on approach to every project this boutique firm undertakes. Before beginning a renovation or restoration, the team takes careful note of what historical elements are the most important to preserving the home's character. The result is gorgeous updates that seamlessly blend the past and present. 57 South Main St., Ipswich, 978-356-5026, cummingsarchitectureinteriors.com

READERS' CHOICE

Dorald Design & Construction, Peabody

101 Central St., Peabody, 978-854-5555, doraldconstruction.com

ARCHITECT/TRADITIONAL

EDITORS' CHOICE

Carpenter & MacNeille, Essex

Carpenter & MacNeille aims to design homes that create an architectural legacy by combining respect for traditional forms and lines, classic dedication to quality and workmanship, and completely contemporary standards and conveniences. The full-service firm can stop at the design or help homeowners through the entire process from first sketch to final finish. 106 Western Ave., Essex, 978-768-7900, carpentermacneille.com

READERS' CHOICE

Ben Nutter Architects, Topsfield

43 Canterbury Hill Rd., Topsfield, 978-887-9836, benjaminnutter.com

SPACES

BATH DESIGN

EDITORS' CHOICE

Kristina Crestin Design, Manchester-by-the-Sea

A bathroom is a small space with an outsized role in daily life. Kristina Crestin knows how to talk to clients to find out what they really need from their design, then maximize the impact of every element to create a room that is functional, beautiful, and relaxing. 7 Summer St., Manchester-by-the-Sea, 978-890-7186, kristinacrestindesign.com

READERS' CHOICE

Anna O Design, Peabody 978-335-9475, annaodesign.com

INTERIOR DESIGN/ CONTEMPORARY

EDITORS' CHOICE

SV Design, Siemasko + Verbridge, Beverly

As a premier architecture and design firm, SV Design has the breadth of experience and expertise to help any client's vision come to life. The team has deep local knowledge that allows it to create striking contemporary designs with touches of New England vernacular for bold spaces with a sense of place. 126 Dodge St., Beverly, 978-927-3745, svdesign.com

READERS' CHOICE

Justine Sterling Design, Stoneham 380 Main St., Ste. 401, Stoneham, 781-620-0416, justinesterling.com

INTERIOR DESIGN/ TRADITIONAL

EDITORS' CHOICE (TIE)

SLC Interiors, South Hamilton

A quick flip through SLC Interiors' portfolio makes it clear the firm knows how to bring classic lines, materials, and colors into the present day for interiors that are vibrant and traditional but never stodgy. Throughout the process, designers work with clients to present options and home in on a vision for a timeless final design. 264 Bay Rd., Hamilton, 978-468-4330, slcinteriors.com

Kathy Marshall Design, Wenham

Kathy Marshall developed her love of design at a young age, watching her cabinetmaker father at work. Today, that deep respect for craftsmanship and beauty comes through in her interior design work. Her designs offer a unique and colorful balance of modern touches and traditional elements with a distinct sense of personality. 25 Grapevine Rd., Wenham, 978-468-7199, kathymarshalldesign.com

READERS' CHOICE

Honey Collins, Essex

76 Western Ave., Essex, 978-758-1145, lwcinteriors.com

KITCHEN DESIGN SHOWROOM

EDITORS' CHOICE

Heartwood Kitchens, Danvers

A visit to the Heartwood Kitchens showroom is about more than looking at some great cabinets (though, rest assured, they have those too). The expert staff at Heartwood works with customers to transform their first inspirations into a final kitchen outfitted with carefully chosen and placed cabinets, countertops, fixtures, and accessories, demystifying every step of the process. 75 Newbury St., Unit C, Danvers, 978-762-7472, heartwoodkitchens.net

READERS' CHOICE

McGuire + Co. Kitchen & Bath, Wakefield

239 North Ave., Wakefield, 781-243-4141, mcguirekitchenbath.com